

Ancient Peru: Huacas de Moche, El Brujo, Túcume, Kuélap & The Sacred Valley – 15 days

Description

BOLIVIA EXPEDITIONS

Peru is famous for the ruins of Machu Picchu to the south, but the lesser-known pre-Inca sites across the country are just as impressive. This 15-day itinerary brings you up close to some of the largest and oldest sites, like the sprawling city Chan Chan, the mysterious Moray terraces, and the imposing Kuélap fortress, as you travel from arid desert to misty cloud forest.

Highlights

- Walk among Chimú and Moche reliefs, murals, and pyramids
- Hike through cloud forests for views of the 2,500-foot Gocta Waterfall
- Try your hand at sandboarding in the Ica Desert

- Sample salt from Inca-era wells in Salinas de Mara
- Visit four ancient sites in the Sacred Valley, including Machu Picchu

Travel Program

Day 1: Arrive in Trujillo

Welcome to Trujillo! Thanks to its sunny, calm weather, the coastal city is known as “La ciudad de la primavera eterna” (The City of Everlasting Spring). Once the heart of the Moche and Chimú cultures, the city is now known for its archaeological finds and beautiful colonial-era buildings and role in gaining independence from Spain. You’ll fly in today and have time to explore.

While you’re in town, check out the Historic Centre of Trujillo, watch a demonstration of the “Marinera,” a traditional Peruvian dance, or settle in with a plate of ceviche, since it’s said that the famous dish was created by the Moche people in this area around 2,000 years ago.

Day 2: Huacas de Moche, Chan Chan & Huanchaco Tour

Head out in the morning for a full day of sightseeing near Trujillo. First, visit two monuments of the Moche culture, the Huaca de la Luna, or “Moon Temple,” still decorated with well-conserved paintings on the walls, and the Huaca Arco Iris, or “Rainbow Temple,” named for the colorful high reliefs found on its walls. From here, continue to what was once the largest city in pre-Columbian Peru: Chan Chan. The Chimú complex features clusters of buildings, royal palace rooms, and sprawling workshops to house the city’s artisans.

Continue to Huanchaco, a traditional fishing beach town famous for its totora reed boats, known locally as the “Caballitos de totora” (Little Totora Horses). These boats, made out of the thick and buoyant totora reed, have been used for fishing and surfing for centuries. Enjoy lunch in the seaside town, then return to Trujillo in the afternoon. If there’s time, take a detour to explore the small historical city center of Trujillo before returning to the hotel for the evening.

Day 3: Visit El Brujo & Transfer to Chiclayo

In the morning, set off to Chiclayo in the nearby region of Lambayeque. Along the way, stop at the archaeological site of El Brujo. This 98-foot-tall (29.8 m) adobe pyramid is famous for the tomb of the Lady of Cao, a female Peruvian mummy discovered dressed as a warrior and buried in a manner similar to the male aristocratic warriors, suggesting that she, and potentially other women of the time, was a high-ranking member of society.

Day 4: Túcume Pyramids & Tumbas Reales Museum Tour

Start your day with a visit to the 26 pyramids at the Túcume Archaeological Complex, an area successively controlled by the Lambayeque, Chimú, Inca, and Spanish peoples. Spanning 547 acres (221.5 ha), this sprawling complex contains fascinating architectural features such as pat, canals, and enormous palaces decorated with exemplary murals.

After lunch, head to the Museo Tumbas Reales de Sipán (Royal Tombs of Sipán Museum) in Lambayeque, just outside of Chiclayo. This museum contains a wealth of archaeological treasures buried with the Lord of Sipán, a Moche mummy discovered in nearby Sipán in 1987. At the time, the Lord of Sipán's tomb was one of the best-preserved in the country, earning comparisons with the tomb of the Egyptian pharaoh Tutankhamun.

Day 5: Transfer to Chachapoyas

Today is a travel day. Head inland to Chachapoyas, a city surrounded by cloud forests in the Amazonas region. During the roughly seven-hour drive, you'll watch the arid deserts of the coast give way to the humid cloud forests of Andean peaks. Along the way, you'll have plenty of chances to get out, stretch your legs, and capture photos of the landscape.

Arrive at your hotel in Chachapoyas in the afternoon and spend the rest of the day relaxing or exploring the charming town. Visit the Santa Isabela Nursery's orchids, admire the colonial-era casonas (mansions), or see the legendary Pozo de Yanayacu. This well would cause any single man that drank from it to be utterly charmed by the local women.

Day 6: Hike to Gocta Waterfall

After a hearty breakfast, hit the trail for a two-three hour hike to the famous Gocta Waterfall. The 3.7-mile (6-km) hike is well worth it, not only because it crosses through vast sugar cane fields and thick cloud forest but because the falls drop a jaw-dropping 2,531 feet (771 m) in two steps. While the falls have only been known to the general public since the early 2000s, you might pass some well-known wildlife during your hike, like the bright orange tunki (Andean cock-of-the-rock), Peru's national bird.

Day 7: Take the Cablecar to Kuélap Fortress

Get an early start today for the hourlong ride to Nuevo Tingo, a small village nestled in the high Andes. From here, board the cable car up to the spectacular ruins of Kuélap, a pre-Inca settlement surrounded by 65-foot (19.8-m) walls. The site, located 9,500 feet (2,895 m) up a mountain ridge overlooking the Utcubamba Valley, earned the nickname "Machu Picchu of the North." Take a guided tour through the settlement's rounded buildings before heading back down the mountain.

Day 9: Visit the Ica Desert & Huacachina Oasis

Take a four-hour ride down Peru's coastline toward Ica, a city in the southern Ica Desert. From here, head to Huacachina, an oasis among the sand dunes. After a quick tour, it's off to the dunes for adrenaline-pumping dune buggy rides or sandboarding across the sands. If you're not feeling too adventurous, hang out with a Pisco sour—after all, the famous Peruvian brandy comes from this region. Stop for lunch on the shores of the oasis lagoon before heading back to Lima.

It's time to trade in Peru's current capital city for the formal capital of the Inca Empire, Cusco. With an elevation of 11,000 feet (3,000 m), the city's altitude takes some getting used to—remember to rest often and drink plenty of water for the first couple of days here after your flight over. Consider walking through the narrow streets to check out local markets or have a cup of coca tea to help adjust to the elevation. Or, head to the slopes above the city to check out Inca sacred sites like Sacsayhuaman and Q'enqo.

Day 11: Moray Terraces & Salineras de Maras Tour

Visit two of the more well-known archaeological sites in the area today, starting with Moray. This historically ambiguous site hosts three muyus (circular terraces) with depths of up to 98 feet (30 m). The dramatic change in temperature from the top to the bottom of each muyu creates microclimates like those in a greenhouse, leading many to believe the Incas used the site as an agricultural laboratory. There's no way to know for sure, and that enduring mystery is part of Moray's charm.

Then, head to Salineras de Maras, a patchwork of thousands of salt wells created by the Incas and still used today. This geometric landscape high in the mountains is a favorite for photographers, but even if you don't use a camera, you can bring a piece of the Salineras home. You can still buy salt from the wells in nearby Maras, just as the Incas once did hundreds of years ago.

Day 12: Pisac, Ollantaytambo & Chinchero Tour

The scenic floodplain between Pisac and Ollantaytambo in the valley of the Urubamba River is known as the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Tour three of the Sacred Valley's gems today on a tour of Pisac, Ollantaytambo, and Chincho. Start at Pisac Archaeological Park and check out the Inca-era complex before heading down the hill to the modern town's handicraft market, the largest in the region.

From here, head to Ollantaytambo, one of the few remaining places in the Sacred Valley that have retained its original Inca urban planning. Walk through the streets with Inca-era canals and view the ancient houses still in use today. Climb the agricultural terraces for a bird's-eye-view of the valley. From the top, you'll be able to see some of the quarries from where the stone for Ollantaytambo was sourced and marvel at the feat of engineering that brought them up to the sight.

Then, head back toward Cusco and stop at Chincho, a small Andean village sitting at a higher elevation than the other villages at 12,342 feet (3,762 m) above sea level. Enjoy breathtaking views of snowy mountains like Salcantay, the highest peak in the Vilcabamba mountain range, as you explore the Inca-era terraces, a colonial-era stucco church, and another artisanal market.

It's finally time to head for the most well-known Inca archaeological site in Peru, Machu Picchu. First, catch a train to Aguas Calientes, the small town that serves as a base to explore Machu Picchu. Admire from the ceiling windows on the train as you pass by the Urubamba River canyon and through cloud forests. Then, take a bus for the last stretch of the trip to the Inca citadel.

Presiding nearly 8,000 feet (2,438 m) above the Sacred Valley, Machu Picchu has been stunning visitors for centuries. When you arrive today, get an extensive tour from a guide and walk among 15th-century dry-stone walls and check out the three most famous structures—the Intihuatana ritual stone, The Temple of the Sun, and The Temple of the Three Windows—as well as some lesser-known spots around the area. Dressing appropriately for the mountains can make the difference between a pleasant trip and a really uncomfortable one. Clothing must provide the right degree of temperature, perspiration and be well ventilated. Preferably cotton clothing should be avoided, as in humid conditions they absorb body heat.

In general, the weather conditions in in the Andes of South America can vary from day to day and even throughout the day. Therefore, clothing must be versatile.

Please do not hesitate to contact us with any questions you may have regarding the necessary equipment.

Frequently Asked Questions

What our travelers or clients always ask questions before joining our trips, tours & expeditions, read all the information provided here.

Suggested FAQs

What experience and how fit do I need to be to climb this mountain? Is this program suitable for children or older people?

For our mountain climbing trips: If they are easily accessible mountains: For easy-climb mountains, well, you don't need much experience, but if you already want to climb mountains above 6,000 meters and the conditions become more difficult, we recommend if you already want to go through mountains above 6,000 meters, have a basic or intermediate course for a good preparation. It is very important to be physically, technically and psychologically prepared.

Regarding the preparation of children: Everything will depend on which mountain you want to climb with your children, once you are clear on which of our tours or mountains you want to go with your children, we can give you some advice or see how to prepare them before going with them.

Regarding older people: It all depends on the condition of experience and how well the person is in health, on many occasions older people are the best to walk in the mountains because they have more experience, so it is always good to ask and find out about their experience of older participant. If you have any other questions, please contact us. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

Will I need to bring any technical equipment of my own? Is it possible to rent equipment, and if so, what would be the approximate cost of that?

In all our trekking or mountaineering trips we do not include personal equipment in our prices, so you have to have your own equipment: Personal equipment (such as boots, ice ax, crampons, harness, sleeping bag, mat, Goretex, etc.) and also within each page of the trips that we sell is a small list so you can see it on our website.

Our company can also rent the materials that you would need for your trip, see the list here on our website: <https://peru-expeditions.org/equipment-rental/> . For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

Are there any other special requirements such as permits/insurance/vaccines that I need to consider before the tour?

Safe and effective vaccines are available that provide strong protection against serious illness, hospitalization and death from COVID-19. Billions of people have been vaccinated against COVID-19. Getting vaccinated is one of the most important things you can do to protect yourself against COVID-19, help end the pandemic and stop new variants emerging.

We also recommend having accident insurance, we always recommend. We are Partners –Global Rescue. If you have any other questions about the trip we can schedule a date for a calling via WhatsApp. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

What experience do I need to have? How fit do I need to be? Is this program suitable for children or older people?

To do long-distance hiking you need to at least train or do some tours such as visiting lagoons to get the experience and feel comfortable with what you do, it is always good before doing a long-distance hiking tour to test yourself so as not to be with the problems of altitude sickness during the trekking, and if you travel with children it is good to first train them before taking them, if they are accompanied by an adult of legal age, they must do a good acclimatization before going on the long-distance tour or with high altitude camps If you want to know or learn more advice, we can schedule a call via WhatsApp to clarify your doubts. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

How far in advance should I start training and what kind of training do you suggest?

The preparation is according to what type and what technical level you want to go and climb a trek or mountain, the preparation will always gain experience little by little.

For this type of demanding or technical climbing sports, it is recommended to do some summits above 5 thousand meters beforehand and have good knowledge of high mountain technical equipment such as the use of technical ice axes, ice screws, correct use of crampons, and of course all the technical material. For more information, we can schedule an appointment to be able to explain in more detail everything about the mountain equipment and the preparations prior to joining our outings. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

What is the average distance and altitude gain that we will hike each day?

Every day we have active walks around approximately 4, to 5 sometimes 6 hours of walking, everything is according to your pace and physical condition of each person, in each of our travel programs you will find more detailed information, and if If you need more information about each day of the travel program, we can schedule a call via WhatsApp to clarify your doubts or questions, for this please contact us. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

Will there be porters to help to carry group and personal equipment?

In our trips, either hiking or mountaineering: Depending on the type or destination of the trip that you are going to book, in some parts of the treks you go with mules or donkeys or sometimes with horses, and within the mountain trips, the approach camps are also They go with mules or donkeys, but there are some stretches where pack animals can no longer reach. In this part, our logistics is fully supported by the porters.

Who are the porters? They are people from the area who were born and live in the heights of the towns, they are very strong and are very acclimatized, the reason is that after the tourist season ends they dedicate themselves to agriculture and livestock for that reason they are people They are used to the altitude and have lived in nature all their lives and they are happy to be in the mountains together with our expeditions. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

How will accommodation and meals be handled during the trek?

About accommodation or meals during the tour: Well, depending on the type of tour, when the tour is a classic cultural tour or a city tour, we eat during the route in tourist restaurants and sleep in category hotels that the client has requested.

If the tour is with camps and trekking: During the activity, logistics we include the service of Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner with traditional and typical meals of the region where you are going to travel with us, during the night we stay in tents, and we have a special tent for the kitchen and another for the dining room.

If the trip is at altitude or in the mountains: We bring special high mountain food, It are quicker meals to cook and we provide complete logistics such as Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner, and we sleep in special 4-season high mountain tents, with the best tents. If you have any questions or concerns, we can schedule an appointment via Whatsapp to clarify all your doubts and give you better information so that your trip is an unforgettable tour.

What is the guide-to-client ratio to climb this mountain?

In mountains above 5000 meters: A local guide takes a maximum of 3 clients = Ratio 3pax = 1 local guide

In technical mountains: In large-big mountains we manage the travel policy, a guide and a maximum of 2 clients = Ratio 3pax = 1 local guide. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

What is the best time of the year to climb this mountain?

For all the trips that we offer within our main tourist destinations such as South America and Central America, also including the ascent of the 7 continents and the 7 highest peaks of each continent, on each page of our website for each trip we indicate that month or what season to travel, then please read the information you find in our travel offers for each tour. If you have any other questions you can contact us by WhatsApp with one of our travel experts. Thank you so much. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

Do I have what it takes to succeed on this expedition?

In the interest of the team's enjoyment and success, we work with every single guest to ensure they are properly prepared and ready for this expedition. We pride ourselves on vetting every member to make sure that the team can bond and succeed together. It really sucks to be grouped with members that are much faster, or much slower, than you are. No one wants to be the weakest link on a trip like this. By setting expectations and a solid training plan, we work to insure maximum cohesive success. Use this trip as an exercise motivator, and we will succeed together with style.

How can I get to the trailhead/meeting point?

For the pick-ups of each trip, depending on the place or the trip that you are going to make with us, the meeting point is always at our office, in one of our trips we pick you up where you are staying or staying, or in some cases a representative of our company will pick you up and then ship you to your transport to continue with your destination of the tour or trip you have booked with us. If you wish to request more information, do not hesitate to contact us. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

What happens in the event of bad weather?

About the meteorological conditions of the climate, we try to organize the trips of each tour in the best season to have the best views and enjoy the selected trip but sometimes even in good season we can have bad weather, in this case on hiking or treks trips the complications are minimal, but when this happens during high-altitude climbing expeditions, the complications can become very difficult, that is why the bosses or leaders of the local guides must always make the most correct decision for the safety of our passengers, so we always recommend listening to the best advice from the local guide assigned for each tour. If you have any other questions please contact us. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

Can I join a group?

We as a local company and connoisseurs of tours have departures on different dates. The best thing to do is to join a travel group to take care of your budget, and of course you can join our groups, but on trips like mountaineering we recommend going in small groups. To join a group, ask us for the dates and we will send you the necessary information to be able to join any of our trips.

Why go in a private trip: For trips whether trekking or high mountains, going privately is the most recommended option, but the costs are more expensive. So, if one joins a group, the prices will be more reasonable. In the mountains, the only disadvantage is if you are in a wall with another partner and if one of the participants gets tired or gets sick. In this case, you have to abort or cancel the summit and return together. For more information, contact us. We can schedule a call via WhatsApp to clarify all your questions.

In a mountain, for example, if 3 people go and one of the participants falls ill on the route, for security reasons they have to cancel or abort the summit or return all together. The same in a technical mountain if the climbing partner gets sick they all have to return, for these reasons sometimes it is better to go private only because for a single person the costs are more expensive for the same reason that the trip would already be private .
