Travel Program

Day 1: Arrive in Lima, Optional Activities

¡Bienvenidos! Welcome to Peru! This country’s famous history is evidenced in its Spanish-colonial landmarks, ancient Inca ruins, and other archaeological sites that predate even those two historical periods. You’ll arrive in the capital of Lima, which is Peru’s largest city. This metropolitan hub has its own complex history, as it was part of the Inca empire in the 15th century and later conquered by the Spanish. Today its population of over 10 million people represents a diverse mix of cultural influences, including Amerindian, Afro-Peruvian, and Asian—especially Chinese and Japanese.

At the airport, a driver will pick you up at the terminal and transfer you to your hotel in the upscale Miraflores neighborhood. The ride takes about an hour, and after checking into your hotel, you’ll have the rest of the day to explore Lima on a self-guided tour. Lima’s breezy location on the Pacific Ocean and mild desert climate make it the perfect city for exploring on foot.

Perhaps start in the historic center, which is filled with Spanish-colonial landmarks, such as the Lima Cathedral, which dates to 1535. For culture and history, head to Museo Larco, which is housed in a restored viceregal mansion and boasts a vast collection of pre-Columbian art and artifacts. Later in the day, return to Miraflores and Parque del Amor (Love Park), which sits on the coastal cliffs and is the perfect spot to enjoy an unforgettable sunset over the Pacific. Then maybe enjoy a nightcap at a trendy bar or restaurant in Miraflores.

Day 2: Fly to Trujillo, Temple of the Moon

In the morning, a driver will pick you up for the ride back to the airport, where you'll catch a one-hour flight to Trujillo. Located in the far north of Peru, this city is known for its rich Spanish-colonial heritage, as seen in the colorful facades of the well-preserved churches and buildings in its historic center.

Upon arrival at the airport, another driver will transfer to your hotel. After settling in, you'll take a 30-minute ride west of the city to the Temple of the Moon, one of the most impressive archaeological sites in the region. This pre-Hispanic mud pyramid was sacred to the ancient Moche people, a civilization that flourished in this area from 100-750 CE. During a tour, keep an eye on the temple walls, which are adorned with colorful murals and the religious symbol Ai-Apaec, or "God of the Mountains."

Despite the prevalence of archaeological ruins in this region, the Mochica culture is not at all extinct. After visiting the temple and its on-site museum, continue to a pottery and handicrafts shop to view and learn about the traditional crafting methods preserved by the Mochica people over the centuries.

Day 3: Day Trip to Chan Chan & Huanchaco

Head out in the morning for a full day of sightseeing near Trujillo. Your first stop is the Huanco Arco Iris, or Rainbow Temple, named for the mysterious and colorful high reliefs on its walls. From here, continue to the world's largest mud-brick citadel: the Chan Chan. Covering an area of 7.7 square miles (20 sq km), this well-preserved adobe city was once home to 100,000 people of the pre-Inca Chimú culture. Highlight buildings include vast residences, royal palace rooms, and sprawling workshops where the city's artisans once plied their trade.

After touring Chan Chan, you'll travel to adjacent Huanchaco, a scenic fishing village famous for its long beach and traditional reed boats, known locally as the "Caballitos de Totorá." These boats, made from the thick and buoyant totorá reed, have been used for fishing for centuries. Enjoy lunch in this charming seaside town before returning to Trujillo in the afternoon.

Day 4: Transfer to Cajamarca, City Tour

After an early breakfast, you'll meet your driver for the trip north from Trujillo to Cajamarca. This city is nestled high in the Andes and is known for its stunning mountain scenery, Baroque colonial landmarks, and Inca historical sites. The drive into the highlands takes about six hours, but there will be stops for food and to stretch your legs.

Upon arrival in Cajamarca, you'll check into your hotel, then head out for a tour of the city and its nearby historical sites. The first locale your guide will lead you to is Baños del Inca, a complex of hot springs believed to have been a favored retreat for the Inca rulers. More significantly, this site is home to the Ransom Room. It was in this small room in 1532 that Inca emperor Atahualpa was held captive by the Spanish conquistadors led by Francisco Pizarro. Atahualpa offered a room full of gold and silver as a ransom, and though the Spanish accepted, they executed the Inca ruler anyway.

Afterward, you'll tour the Plaza de Armas, the city's main square. It's filled with several impressive Baroque colonial churches and monasteries dating from the 17-18th centuries. At the end of the day, you'll return to your hotel.

On the way, you'll stop at the famous Bellavista viewpoint to enjoy panoramic vistas of Cajamarca and the surrounding Andes. You'll also stop at pre-Inca ruins of temples and sacrificial stones.

Eventually, you'll arrive in Cumbe Mayo. Estimated to be around 3,000 years old, this ancient stone aqueduct was built by the pre-Inca Cajamarca civilization. Besides the history, it offers a glimpse into the engineering skills of these ancient peoples.

You'll return to Cajamarca in time for lunch. Later in the afternoon, you'll travel to another vital Cajamarca archaeological site: Ventanillas de Otuzco. Dating back about 2,000 years, this site is known for its unique funerary niches carved into a rock face, resembling small windows or ventanillas in Spanish. These niches were used by the Cajamarca culture and later by the Incas for burial purposes. At the end of the afternoon, you'll return to your hotel.

This small town is the gateway to northern Peru's famous Chachapoyas region, known for its lush cloud forests, deep river valleys, and soaring mountains.

This is a long trip but a scenic one. On the way, you'll pass colorful highland cities like Celendin and ascend to high mountain passes like Abra de Gelic (10,170 ft/ 3,100 m). There, you'll enjoy sweeping views of the mountains and the Río Marañon valley. You'll also stop at a roadside restaurant for lunch.

Eventually, you'll descend into the Río Atuen valley and reach Leymebamba (7,217 ft/ 2,200 m). Once in town, you'll check into your accommodation and visit its most famous attraction: the Mummy Museum. Dating to the sixth century CE, Kuleap spans an area of 150 acres (60 ha) and sits at an elevation of around 10,000 feet (3,000 m). It comprises hundreds of stone structures, including circular buildings, defensive walls, and ceremonial platforms. Like Machu Picchu, this site affords 360-degree views of the surrounding Andes peaks. During a 2-3-hour tour, you’ll visit the most iconic structures, including the Main Citadel and Atalaya Watchtower.

After the tour, you’ll enjoy lunch nearby, then continue driving a few more hours north to the town of Chachapoyas. Upon arrival, you’ll check into your accommodation and have the evening free.

After transferring to the trailhead, you'll head out on the path, which will take you past agricultural farms and deep into the cloud-forest ecosystem. During this section, you'll spot a number of native bird species, including hummingbirds and gallito de las rocas (Andean cock-of-the-rock), the national bird of Peru. You'll also see exotic flora like orchids and bromeliads.

Eventually, you'll arrive at the spectacle of Mother Nature, which is Gocta Falls. Plunging 2,530 feet (771 m) over a cliff, this is one of the tallest waterfalls in the world (and the highest one in Peru). The lush greenery and dramatic cliffs surrounding the falls add to the beauty. After spending time enjoying the scenery, you'll hit the trail back the way you came. ### What happens in the event of bad weather?

About the meteorological conditions of the climate, we try to organize the trips of each tour in the best season to have the best views and enjoy the selected trip but sometimes even in good season we can have bad weather, in this case on hiking or treks trips the complications are minimal, but when this happens during high-altitude climbing expeditions, the complications can become very difficult, that is why the bosses or leaders of the local guides must always make the most correct decision for the safety of our passengers, so we always recommend listening to the best advice from the local guide assigned for each tour. ### Can I join a group?

We as a local company and connoisseurs of tours have departures on different dates. The best thing to do is to join a travel group to take care of your budget, and of course you can join our groups, but on trips like mountaineering we recommend going in small groups. To join a group, ask us for the dates and we will send you the necessary information to be able to join any of our trips.

Why go in a private trip: For trips whether trekking or high mountains, going privately is the most recommended option, but the costs are more expensive. So, if one joins a group, the prices will be more reasonable. In the mountains, the only disadvantage is if you are in a wall with another partner and if one of the participants gets tired or gets sick. In this case, you have to abort or cancel the summit and return together. For more information, contact us. We can schedule a call via WhatsApp to clarify all your questions.

In a mountain, for example, if 3 people go and one of the participants falls ill on the route, for security reasons they have to cancel or abort the summit or return all together. The same in a technical mountain if the climbing partner gets sick they all have to return, for these reasons sometimes it is better to go private only because for a single person the costs are more expensive for the same reason that the trip would already be private .
