Travel Program

Day 1: Arrival in Lima

Welcome to Lima, Peru's largest city and central metropolitan hub, and home to one-third of the country's population. Located at the site of a pre-Columbian indigenous Ychsma settlement, which was conquered by the Inca empire in the 15th century and later by the Spanish conquistadores, Lima has a fascinating history and a diverse mix of cultures. Amerindian, European, Afro-Peruvian, and Asian—especially Chinese and Japanese—influences make Lima a dynamic and exciting city to explore.

Lima's breezy location on the Pacific Ocean and mild desert climate make it the perfect city for exploring on foot. Head downtown to mingle with locals, stretch your legs, and grab a bite to eat in one of the many award-winning restaurants.

Suggested activities include:

- Explore the historic center of Lima, a UNESCO World Heritage Site packed with fascinating Spanish architecture. Start with a scenic tour of the colonial downtown, which emanates from the main square. Stroll over to the 16th-century Cathedral, which took 80 years to construct and was built in the grandiose style of the Spanish Empire.
- Visit the Casa Aliaga, a colonial mansion granted by chief conquistador Francisco Pizarro to Jerónimo de Aliaga, one of his captains, in 1535. This is the only house from that era that still belongs to the same family.
- Stroll around the Pueblo Libre district to the privately owned Larco Museum of pre-Columbian art, housed in a beautifully restored viceregal mansion built over a 7th-century pre-Columbian pyramid. The museum boasts a vast pre-Colonial collection of gold and silver artifacts, as well as pieces of erotic art.
- In the evening, head to the eclectic "Love Park" in the upscale coastal district of Miraflores, where you can admire a huge kissing statue and beautiful mosaic walls. The park is built on the cliffs of Chorrillos and is a perfect place to enjoy a spectacular sunset over the Pacific.

- Enjoy a nightcap at an open-air cafe or restaurant in the diverse Miraflores neighborhood.

Day 2: Arrival in Cusco

Welcome to Cusco! You will be met at the airport and transferred to your hotel. In the afternoon, your English-speaking guide will take you on a tour of the city. Start at Sacsayhuaman, a megalithic archeologic site, before continuing to the Main Square to visit the cathedral, which boasts over 300 paintings from the Cusqueñean School of Art.

Stop at Koricancha, also called “The Golden Temple” — the historic center of the Inca Empire. This name refers to the coating of golden plates which once decorated the walls of this stunning structure. On top of the Inca temple, the Spanish erected the Santo Domingo Convent and Church, an impressive baroque-style building which serves as a current-day reminder of the colonial period.

Day 3: Sacred Valley

For the Incas and their descendants, the Urubamba, or Vilcanota River, has always been believed to bring fertility to the earth. Perceived as a sacred being, the river is surrounded by the extremely fertile Sacred Valley, where several important Inca architectural complexes are located. The bus ride there takes you past breathtaking views of the snow-capped Willka Weqe (Mt. Veronica) and Chicon mountains, located in the incredible Vilcanota range.

Your first stop today is at the Inca agricultural laboratory of Moray. Here, the Incas researched methods for adapting plants from higher to lower ecosystems and vice versa. Continue to Maras, a beautiful colonial town and salt mine which has been continually in use since Inca times. After visiting the salt mines, enjoy a beautiful hour-long walk to a ranch for lunch, where you will delight in Peruvian Paso horse riding demonstrations and watch marinera dancers. Finally, in the afternoon, visit Ollantaytambo, which is considered the last living Incan village in the Sacred Valley. Venture above the town, where you will find finely built Inca temples and other structures erected during the Imperial Period.

Day 4: Trip To Machu Picchu

Head to the train station for your trip from Poroy to Aguas Calientes, one of the most spectacular train rides in the world. The train trip will take you along the Urubamba River and into the cloud forest.

Arrive at Aguas Calientes, located at the base of Machu Picchu, and check into your hotel. From here, the ancient complex is a quick 25-minute bus ride up the mountain. Avoid the crowds by heading up with your guide in the early evening for an inspiring tour of the citadel and a magical sunset.

Day 5: Machu Picchu Mountain Hike

Spend an extra day at Machu Picchu exploring this otherworldly marvel. Hike to the top of Machu Picchu mountain for a perfect vantage point of the surrounding sacred apus – mountain spirits said to protect the local people — of Salcantay, Pumasillo, and Huacyhuillca. Take plenty of breaks on the way up to rehydrate and learn about the unique flora and fauna of this region from your guide. After the hike, take the bus back down to the village and catch the train back to Poroy, before connecting back to Cusco.

Day 6: Hiking to the Shrine of the Lord of Huanca

In the morning, depart from Cusco towards the San Jeronimo district, just over 30 minutes by car from the center of the city. Start your hike in the San Jeronimo square and head up the path towards the small community of Huaccoto, where you will have a breathtaking view of the surrounding valleys and Apu Pachatusan, the highest mountain in the area.

From here the path is flat and descends down a narrow road towards the Shrine of the Lord of Huanca. Every year on September 14th, thousands of people make the pilgrimage to this site which contains both Catholic imagery and, according to Andean traditions, the spirit of Apu Pachatusan. Then take the car down to the Sacred Valley where you'll stop for lunch before heading back to the hotel in Cusco. The total walking distance today is 5 miles.

Day 7: Ausangate Lodge-to-Lodge Trek: Cusco – Chillca

Your car departs from Cusco to the south and follows the Vilcanota River for about three hours. Along the way, stop and visit the impressive temple of Checacupe. Continue through the upper valley of Pitumarca to the hamlet of Japura where you'll begin your trek. The first stop is the town of Chillca, located at 14,272 feet above sea level. Community members often greet visitors with traditional Andean music and coca leaf tea inside of Chillca Tambo — the first of the lodges. The trek here is a short 2 miles.

Today is an acclimatization day — rest at Chillca Tambo, immerse yourself in the culture of the high Andean valley, and enjoy the views. From here you can see a spectacular view of the Phinaya glacial valley, with the snow-capped Mt. Jatun Jampa in the background. The people of this valley use the high elevation to their advantage, grazing thousands of alpacas and llamas and cultivating some of the highest potato fields in the world.

Day 8: Ausangate Lodge-to-Lodge Trek: Chillca – Machuracay

Today you'll trek through the Phinaya glacial valley, home to thousands of llamas and alpacas. Start your day by hiking towards the glaciers of Santa Catalina, climbing alongside the Pjachaj waterfalls as you pass them. Break just above the waterfalls for a prepared lunch before continuing on.

This valley is steeped in geological history — moraine walls, glaciers, and lagoons dominate the landscape that witnessed the beginnings of ancient cultures settling in the Andes. Trek for five hours (just over 6 miles) to reach the Machuraccay Tambo, a family-operated lodge and one of the world's highest residences at 15,912 feet. Spend the night here, located at the foot of Mt. Ausangate, the highest peak in the Vilcanota's Cordillera and the Incas' most sacred mountain.

Day 9: Ausangate Lodge-to-Lodge Trek: Machuracay – Anantapata

Today you'll trek over your first mountain pass, located at 16,896 feet. Enjoy the spectacular panoramic views before descending through red sandstone formations. Keep your eyes open on this section of the trek to spot the native vicuñas and occasional condors. Your gear is transported by llama caravan alongside the trekking group, so you can focus on taking in the view for the 6-mile hike. Spend the night at Anantapata Tambo, at 15,518 feet as you enjoy the gorgeous sunset over Ausangate.

Day 10: Ausangate Lodge-to-Lodge Trek: Anantapata – Huampococha

Start your morning by trekking across the massive Glacier del Inca as you take in this awe-inspiring landscape. Underfoot, the brilliant colors of sedimentary soils of the Vinicunca Mountain (also known as Rainbow Mountain) make the 6-mile hike go by easily. Look up to see the hundreds of Andean geese, who nest in the cliffs of Anta. Make your way to Huampococha Tambo, at 15, 814 feet, where you will spend the night.

This last tambo lies within the community of Osefina, whose residents (together with their distant neighbors in Chillca) participate in the Andean Lodges Project. The locals are expert weavers and enjoy showcasing their craft to visitors.

Dressing appropriately for the mountains can make the difference between a pleasant trip and a really uncomfortable one. Clothing must provide the right degree of temperature, perspiration and be well ventilated. Preferably cotton clothing should be avoided, as in humid conditions they absorb body heat.

In general, the weather conditions in in the Andes of South America can vary from day to day and even throughout the day. Therefore, clothing must be versatile.

Please do not hesitate to contact us with any questions you may have regarding the necessary equipment.

Frequently Asked Questions

What our travelers or clients always ask questions before joining our trips, tours & expeditions, read all the information provided here.

Suggested FAQs

What experience and how fit do I need to be to climb this mountain? Is this program suitable for children or older people?

For our mountain climbing trips: If they are easily accessible mountains: For easy-climb mountains, well, you don't need much experience, but if you already want to climb mountains above 6,000 meters and the conditions become more difficult, we recommend if you already want to go through mountains above 6,000 meters, have a basic or intermediate course for a good preparation. It is very important to be physically, technically and psychologically prepared.

Regarding the preparation of children: Everything will depend on which mountain you want to climb with your children, once you are clear on which of our tours or mountains you want to go with your children, we can give you some advice or see how to prepare them before going with them.

Regarding older people: It all depends on the condition of experience and how well the person is in health, on many occasions older people are the best to walk in the mountains because they have more experience, so it is always good to ask and find out about their experience of older participant. If you have any other questions, please contact us. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

Will I need to bring any technical equipment of my own? Is it possible to rent equipment, and if so, what would be the approximate cost of that?

In all our trekking or mountaineering trips we do not include personal equipment in our prices, so you have to have your own equipment: Personal equipment (such as boots, ice ax, crampons, harness, sleeping bag, mat, Goretex, etc.) and also within each page of the trips that we sell is a small list so you can see it on our website.

Our company can also rent the materials that you would need for your trip, see the list here on our website: <https://peru-expeditions.org/equipment-rental/> . For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

Are there any other special requirements such as permits/insurance/vaccines that I need to consider before the tour?

Safe and effective vaccines are available that provide strong protection against serious illness, hospitalization and death from COVID-19. Billions of people have been vaccinated against COVID-19. Getting vaccinated is one of the most important things you can do to protect yourself against COVID-19, help end the pandemic and stop new variants emerging.

What experience do I need to have? How fit do I need to be? Is this program suitable for children or older people?

To do long-distance hiking you need to at least train or do some tours such as visiting lagoons to get the experience and feel comfortable with what you do, it is always good before doing a long-distance hiking tour to test yourself so as not to be with the problems of altitude sickness during the trekking, and if you travel with children it is good to first train them before taking them, if they are accompanied by an adult of legal age, they must do a good acclimatization before going on the long-distance tour or with high altitude camps If you want to know or learn more advice, we can schedule a call via WhatsApp to clarify your doubts. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

How far in advance should I start training and what kind of training do you suggest?

The preparation is according to what type and what technical level you want to go and climb a trek or mountain, the preparation will always gain experience little by little.

For this type of demanding or technical climbing sports, it is recommended to do some summits above 5 thousand meters beforehand and have good knowledge of high mountain technical equipment such as the use of technical ice axes, ice screws, correct use of crampons, and of course all the technical material. For more information, we can schedule an appointment to be able to explain in more detail everything about the mountain equipment and the preparations prior to joining our outings. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

Will there be porters to help to carry group and personal equipment?

In our trips, either hiking or mountaineering: Depending on the type or destination of the trip that you are going to book, in some parts of the treks you go with mules or donkeys or sometimes with horses, and within the mountain trips, the approach camps are also They go with mules or donkeys, but there are some stretches where pack animals can no longer reach. In this part, our logistics is fully supported by the porters.

Who are the porters? They are people from the area who were born and live in the heights of the towns, they are very strong and are very acclimatized, the reason is that after the tourist season ends they dedicate themselves to agriculture and livestock for that reason they are people They are used to the altitude and have lived in nature all their lives and they are happy to be in the mountains together with our expeditions. For calls or inquiries to this number: +51 943 081 066

How will accommodation and meals be handled during the trek?

About accommodation or meals during the tour: Well, depending on the type of tour, when the tour is a classic cultural tour or a city tour, we eat during the route in tourist restaurants and sleep in category hotels that the client has requested.

Do I have what it takes to succeed on this expedition?

In the interest of the team's enjoyment and success, we work with every single guest to ensure they are properly prepared and ready for this expedition. We pride ourselves on vetting every member to make sure that the team can bond and succeed together. It really sucks to be grouped with members that are much faster, or much slower, than you are. No one wants to be the weakest link on a trip like this. By setting expectations and a solid training plan, we work to insure maximum cohesive success. Use this trip as an exercise motivator, and we will succeed together with style.

What happens in the event of bad weather?

About the meteorological conditions of the climate, we try to organize the trips of each tour in the best season to have the best views and enjoy the selected trip but sometimes even in good season we can have bad weather, in this case on hiking or treks trips the complications are minimal, but when this happens during high-altitude climbing expeditions, the complications can become very difficult, that is why the bosses or leaders of the local guides must always make the most correct decision for the safety of our passengers, so we always recommend listening to the best advice from the local guide assigned for each tour. Can I join a group?

We as a local company and connoisseurs of tours have departures on different dates. The best thing to do is to join a travel group to take care of your budget, and of course you can join our groups, but on trips like mountaineering we recommend going in small groups. To join a group, ask us for the dates and we will send you the necessary information to be able to join any of our trips.

Why go in a private trip: For trips whether trekking or high mountains, going privately is the most recommended option, but the costs are more expensive. So, if one joins a group, the prices will be more reasonable. In the mountains, the only disadvantage is if you are in a wall with another partner and if one of the participants gets tired or gets sick. In this case, you have to abort or cancel the summit and return together. For more information, contact us. We can schedule a call via WhatsApp to clarify all your questions.

In a mountain, for example, if 3 people go and one of the participants falls ill on the route, for security reasons they have to cancel or abort the summit or return all together. The same in a technical mountain if the climbing partner gets sick they all have to return, for these reasons sometimes it is better to go private only because for a single person the costs are more expensive for the same reason that the trip would already be private .
